Leave You Behind

Sooner or later, I'm gone, nothing to hold me, less to go on

No word to tell, how I feel. Behind all the curtins the pain is so real

Finally I give you a rest, time to think over, time for a breath

I hope you can find your way home, find a new hope, were all hope is gone

I never wanted to lie. Nothing is easy, especially life

Now, after time passed me by, I take the long road, cause I don`t want to die allone.

Ref:

Soon I am gone, time to move on, time to get real, time for to feel

Out of my mind, leave you behind, leave for to feel, leave you for real.

Decisions are made and for you - Take it as a chance

Never forget to stay true – maybe all turns out good

And if time doesn't heal and the memories taking you down

then you know how I feel, Then you know why I have to go

Ref:

Soon I am gone, time to move on, time to get real, time for to feel

Out of my mind, leave you behind, leave for to feel, leave you for real.
